

Proposed wording to add to PINES Membership Agreement

In order to achieve and maintain a quality PINES database the library system wishing to become a PINES member library will follow the guidelines outlined in "Strategies for a Quality Database" and agree to database cleanup in order to increase the match ratio for records between their database and the existing PINES database.